

Learning Will Get Me Where I'm Going: Reaching for Knowledge

2017 Art and Poster Contest for the 2018 NAHMA Calendar

The National Affordable Housing Management Association (NAHMA) is proud to kick off the annual art/calendar contest. We anticipate that more than 5,000 children, elderly and residents with special needs nationwide will be participating in the calendar art contest this year.

We have added a subtheme to the drug-free message to reinforce a more positive use of time and to encourage a broader range of submissions. The underlying message for the contest will continue to have a drug-free theme but we also wanted to open the door for more avenues of expression. The subtheme for the 2017 contest is Learning Will Get Me Where I'm Going: Reaching for Knowledge.

Below are contest rules and tips for various Affordable Housing Management Associations (AHMAs), property management companies and on-site property managers on how to hold an art contest. If you require additional information on NAHMA's national finalists contest, please contact Brenda Moser at the NAHMA office at 703-683-8630, ext. 112.

CONTEST RULES

Who is eligible to enter the calendar contest?

Children

Children who live in a family community of a NAHMA and/or a local AHMA member company.

Elderly

Residents who are 55 years or older who live in a community of a NAHMA and/or a local AHMA member company.

Residents with Special Needs

Residents who live in a permanent supportive housing community or Section 811 community of a NAHMA and/or a local AHMA member company.

How does the contest work?

For each grade category (for children) and up to three entries in the elderly and special needs levels, local AHMAs select three winning posters, photographs*, websites*, computer art* or other media*, such as tile, macramé, needlework etc., which must be submitted as a photograph. *See detailed descriptions for format and size in another section of the contest rules.

The five grade categories for children are based on the grade level the contestants have completed by June 2017:

- Kindergarten-first grade
- Second-third grade
- Fourth-sixth grade
- Seventh-ninth grade
- 10th-12th grade

While we encourage community activities to discuss the subtheme and contest rules, ENTRIES MUST BE CREATED BY THE INDIVIDUAL WITHOUT ASSISTANCE.

All AHMA winning submissions are forwarded to NAHMA where a distinguished panel of judges will select the 13 winning entries that will appear inside the pages of the 2018 calendar, including submissions from children, elderly and residents with special needs. Additionally, one special entry will be selected as the grand prizewinner, which will appear on the cover. Only children are eligible to become the grand prizewinners.

All art submitted to NAHMA becomes the property of NAHMA and NAHMA has the right to use the art for publicity, publications and advertisements.

How are the art submissions judged?

Entries are judged on the artist's ability to create a submission with the Learning Will Get Me Where I'm Going: Reaching for Knowledge contest subtheme. Specifically judges consider:

- Interpretation of the Learning Will Get Me Where I'm Going: Reaching for Knowledge subtheme.
- Originality of the submission.
- Quality: Is the art submission appealing to the eye?
- Overall artistic ability: Does the art submission show some degree of creativity and skill for its age group? Will the submission be able to be reproduced with reasonable quality and clarity?

What specifications must the artistic submission meet to enter?

- Posters must be done on poster board (or heavy art paper) measuring 22 inches x 28 inches.
- Any media may be used for the posters, including paints, crayons, color pencils, chalk and collage, but contestants are advised to ensure that the media selected:
